PERMITS TO DATE

NUMBER IS GREATER THAN SAME PERIOD OF 1915 BUT AMOUNT SMALLER

According to Mr. J. M. Banker, building inspector of the City of Glendale, there is every reason to believe that, by the end of the month, the record of building throughout the city will fully equal that of last January. "The end of the old year and the beginning of the new are always slow, as far as building is concerned," said Mr. Banker. Last year up to this date we granted 10 permits from this office. This year we have granted 17.

"As far as numbers are concerned this year shows quite an improvement; but the amounts are small. In all that number there are only two substantial houses of $2000 and $2500 value. However, I believe that there will be some substantial building begun before the month is out. We have just about reached the middle of the month. I hear that one building that will cost $5000 is about to be begun.

"The total value of the permits thus far issued is $6460.

"Last year to date the amount was $11,950. Out of the 17 permits no fewer than 7 were for garages. Glendale must be prospering. Every month sees a number of garages erected. That means that more people are buying automobiles. That is certainly no sign of narrow circumstances. A garage means a definite monthly expense and people must be making money to be able to keep up those expenses.

"As to new buildings we have to wait until we see what is going to happen. Of the rumors of new buildings, of which there are many, only a small percentage finally reach this office in the form of a permit, and I am not inclined to pay much attention to such rumors. I know several such stories and I do know definitely that one at least of them will reach us in the form of a permit for a substantial building before many days."

Following are the permits for the month up to date:

The Christian Church is building a schoolroom in conjunction with the church, at the corner of Colorado and Louise. This addition will cost $200 and will be erected by the church people themselves.

Cole & Damerall are erecting a storeroom, valued at $100, at 341 Brand.

L. N. Rudy is building a store, at 345 S. Brand. This will cost $100.

J. H. White has employed E. T. Owen to build for him a garage, to cost $50, at First and Orange.

W. L. Andrews is having built by R. H. Reynolds, a garage costing $150 at 1552 Pioneer Drive.

M. J. Meredith is building an addition to his house at 1427 W. Seventh, at a cost of $40.

J. G. Umbragh is building an addition at 1443 Fifth street, at a cost of $300.

S. P. Stanford is building a fine dwelling at 1500 Salem street, at a cost of $2000.

F. H. Reed is making an addition to his house at 332 S. Adams, at a cost of $200.

Fred W. Dow is erecting at 833 N. Louise street, a garage which is to cost $50.

B. R. Miller has employed W. J. Silverwood to build a garage costing $80, at 1477 Myrtle.

C. O. Smith is building a dwelling at 1566 Hawthorne street at a cost of $400.

F. W. Kennedy is building a garage at 1477 Milford street, at a cost of $60.

Malcolm McLean is erecting a garage at 145 S. Jackson street, at a cost of $150.

Mrs. J. C. Noonan has employed E. D. Yard to build for her a garage at a cost of $30, at 127 N. Maryland.

J. Roman has employed F. E. Beyea to remove and repair a dwelling at 1209 Chestnut street at a cost of $50.

The Municipal & Industrial Equipment Co. is having built by A. Anderson a dwelling, at a cost of $2500, at 330 N. Howard. This will be a two-story frame building.

KALEM COMPANY IS BUSY

Although the rain has temporarily put an end to the outdoor work of the Kalem company, there is quite a deal to do in the studio. The interesting serial, "The Love Pilot," has perforce been stopped on account of the rain. "The Love Pilot" is a story of thrilling adventure. It is occupied with the adventures of two girls. The leading parts are taken by Miss Olive Kirkby and Miss Marin Sais. Mr. Davis is in Hollywood with his "Railway" company. Among those who are taking part in the work are Paul Hurst, Thomas Lingham, Frank Jonathan and Ed Clisbee.

TRAINING OF NURSES

GLENDALE SANITARIUM IS ONE OF THE FIRST-CLASS ACCREDITED INSTITUTIONS OF STATE

After two years of work the Bureau of Registration of Nurses sees some fruition of its labors in the administration of the law establishing examination and licensing of graduate nurses to practice as Registered Nurses. The board held its first examination in Sacramento, Dec. 5, 1914. Forty-two applicants passed out of forty-six. At the second examination in Los Angeles, May 1, 1915, 84 passed out of 86. At the third examination in San Francisco, Oct. 12 and 13, 1915, 140 nurses applied for examination, the result of this has not been made public as yet.

As a result of inspection of the various training schools throughout the State fifty-seven schools were placed on the accredited list for a period of one year. Among those schools was the Glendale Sanitarium, which is recognized throughout the State as one of the best institutions of its kind. "As far as the Glendale Sanitarium is concerned," said Dr. D. D. Comstock, "the new law for graduation of nurses did not affect the Glendale Sanitarium materially. Before the law went into effect we had been complying with all its requirements. In the course of study this school was up to the full requirements of the law. Where we were lacking in expensive, necessary equipment we supplied that by affiliation with institutions in Los Angeles.

The Sanitarium school has always exceeded the requirements in its work. The course of study in the school is considerably beyond the minimum requirements. The staff of teachers fully meets the requirements. Dr. Wood Comstock, who is the head of the school, has given the student nurses teaching considerably beyond the minimum preparation demanded by the board.

"Naturally this thorough system of training has given the Sanitarium a high standing in the estimation of the public. They are in demand. Examination and registration cannot guarantee a nurse. They merely show that the nurse has had the minimum technical preparation and has passed the test required by examination. It gives the public, also, the opportunity to ascertain the standing of the nurse and the qualification of any school established for the training of nurses. The training of a nurse requires intelligent, systematic and sympathetic guidance by experienced teachers, who are thoroughly conversant with the principles of their work. Glendale Sanitarium is in a position to satisfy all these demands."

JUNIOR SHAKESPEARE CLUB

What was at first regarded by some as a very doubtful experiment in child training has turned out a very great success in the case of the Junior Shakespeare club organized by Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan. Mrs. Sloan, who organized and has successfully conducted the Glendale Shakespeare club, has always maintained that it was possible to teach even the youngest children to comprehend the great dramatist. To put her theory to the test she organized this club.

"From the very outset," said Mrs. Sloan, "I have found that the children took a profound interest in the great dramatist. The junior club consists of children from five to fifteen years of age. The president of the club is Miss Dorothy Bonnell. The club meets every Saturday for a two hours' session. It has been a pronounced success. The children are drilled in those parts suitable to the child mind.

"It is just as easy and certainly far more profitable to train a child in correct English and correct thinking as to set the same child to pore over the monstrosities of a Sunday paper comic section as too many of them do. It is easier to teach a child correct methods than to permit them to acquire loose manners of speech and thought.

"It is highly satisfactory to find the deep interest this juvenile Shakespeare class takes in the masterpieces of the great dramatist. They have learned about his life and have entered into a comprehension of the vast scope of his work and know something of his marvelous thought. Under this system these children will have a criterion for judging expression that will make them content with nothing but the best manner of spoken and written thought. The club is immensely popular with the children and will probably soon rival the older club in numbers."

DISPUTE OVER SACKS

That one cannot have one's cake and eat it too was the moral of a curious case that came before Judge Whomes Friday afternoon. In this case J. H. Walters of Glendale made complaint against F. M. Sersen of Los Angeles, to the effect that he had wilfully and maliciously set fire to and destroyed 25 sacks, belonging to the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company. The value of the sacks was set by Walters at $2.50. Walters was put on the stand and testified that Sersen had been doing some paint work for him on three cottages which Walters was erecting. There was $7.50 due on the job and when Walters paid Sersen he kept out of that sum the sum of $2.50, the value of the sacks. Sersen having paid for the sacks thought he had a right to do what he chose with them, consequently he placed them in a heap and burned them. Walters insisted that he should have returned the sacks and got the $2.50. The judge disposed the case in short order, discharging Sersen and asking Walters how he expected to get the sacks after the other man had paid for them and had only burned his own property.

Funeral services are this afternoon at the Scovren-Letton-Frey Undertaking parlors, with burial at Grand View cemetery.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

LOWER CARFARE, NATURAL GAS, FREEHOLDER CHARTER,
IMPROVEMENT OF COLO-RADO STREET

A goodly number of the members of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce assembled in the Chamber of Commerce building, 1011 West Broadway, Friday evening, and discussed questions which are of vital interest to the Glendale community.

J. W. Usilton, president of the chamber, was in the chair and R. M. Jackson filled his regular position as secretary.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, a motion prevailed that the by-laws governing the chamber be suspended. Thereupon the members set at work by resolution and otherwise to make a few changes in the present by-laws.

The first change made was that the membership of the chamber must not exceed 150. Second change, Hereafter the dues will be 50c per month payable in advance.

Third change—The names of inactive members who fail to pay their dues may be stricken from the membership list by a vote of the executive board.

Fourth change—A citizen may by the payment of $25 become a life member of the chamber.

Fifth change—The by-laws may be suspended by the unanimous vote of all members present at any regular meeting.

At this juncture the chair addressed the members as follows: Members of the Chamber of Commerce—Gentlemen:

At a special meeting Friday night, January 28, a report of the year's work will be made and you will elect officers for the ensuing year.

There are a few matters demanding urgent attention which I believe should be brought to your attention at this time.

First—Lower carfare from Glendale to Los Angeles should be insisted on by the residents of this city, as it would unquestionably induce many to locate here. We will grant that the car service is good over the Pacific Electric to this city, but there seems to be no good reason why we should pay such a high fare as the distance from Glendale to Los Angeles is but 8 miles. Many tourists have stated that our car rate is the highest in the country except scenic routes. Would it not be well for this chamber to take action to secure relief.

Second—"Natural gas at natural gas prices" is the slogan in Los Angeles and we should commend and endorse the efforts of that city by resolution who are endeavoring to obtain cheaper rates for a better article. Owing to the foresight of our city authorities when a franchise was granted the gas company it was stipulated that Glendale should have the same rate as Los Angeles, but that does not lessen our obligation to assist that city in every possible way.

Third—We believe the people of Glendale desire a freeholders' charter. In order to have this charter ready to be passed upon by the next state legislature, it will be necessary that a board of freeholders begin work in the near future.

Fourth—City Manager Watson has done his utmost to improve the condition of Colorado boulevard, though he has not been in any way responsible for its faulty construction. The citizens fronting this boulevard have borne the expense for the construction of a good road and its reconstruction should be borne by the entire city.

Fifth—For some months members of the Chamber of Commerce have called attention to the high rate of taxation for the support of the schools of this city. How to lessen this burden, without affecting the efficiency of the schools, is one of the problems that confronts our citizens. Rate of taxation is one of the first questions prospective locators usually ask and if it seems abnormally high they prefer to locate where conditions are more favorable. The rates of a few cities, taken from Tax-Payers' Guide for the year 1915, are offered for purposes of comparison:

Los Angeles (third highest rate of any having a population of 300,000 city in the United States) is 1.00 1/2 on the $100.
Compton, 1.27 1/2 on the $100.
Claremont, 1.36 1/2 on the $100.
Santa Monica, 1.35 on the $100.
Monrovia, 1.35 on the $100.
Whittier, 1.36 on the $100.
South Pasadena, 1.15 1/2 on the $100.
Pasadena, 1.04 1/2 on the $100.
Long Beach, .95 on the $100.
GLENDALE, 1.79 1/2 on the $100.
All of the points mentioned in the president's address were taken up.

FIX TIME TO PAY ACCOUNTS.

Much of the local financial distress is caused on account of there being no fixed time for persons owing accounts to pay them. In Glendale and in other cities of similar population all men doing business are financially reliable and in almost every instance pay what they owe some time. However, there is much financial embarrassment caused from a lack of uniformity in time of paying accounts. Mr. Brown owes Mr. Green an account of $50. Mr. Green owes Mr. Black an account of $50. If Mr. Brown would pay Mr. Green, on the first day of the month, Mr. Green will then be able to pay Mr. Black on the first day of the month, and hence Mr. Black will be able to pay promptly persons that he may owe, and so this way of having a uniformity of time in paying accounts will enable everyone doing business to meet his obligations promptly providing his method of doing business allows him a profit such as will meet all of his financial obligations. As conditions now exist Mr. Jones has adopted the plan of paying all bills on the tenth of the month. Mr. Smith has adopted the plan of paying all bills on the twentieth and Mr. Thompson has adopted the plan of paying his bills when he collects outstanding bills due him and unfortunately Mr. Thompson is slow in making collections, so he requires the people he owes to spend double what the account is worth in calling on him asking that the account be paid.

So here we are, doing business with sufficient money in circulation to meet all obligations promptly if only some established date could be fixed for the payment of all accounts due. It is very likely that the man who sets the tenth of the month to pay accounts he owes takes these ten days of grace that he may have collected sufficient money to pay what he owes on that date. But in the meantime, between the first and the tenth of the month, what is to become of the fellow he owes—where will he get his money for the settlement of his accounts? And then the man who pays on the twentieth holds up business for twenty days but still he is not so bad as the man who has no fixed time for paying accounts, and who pays only after having been repeatedly called upon. Such a man considers himself financially good but his method of doing business puts so much expense on the men with whom he is doing business that they would be better off without his patronage.

The Glendale Evening News urges a common day of settling accounts and the day may be known as "prosperity day" or a day for the settlement of accounts and that after such a day is agreed upon all persons owing accounts should co-operate and pay bills due upon that day.

INCREASE IN BUILDING MATERIAL PRICES

It should interest quite a large section of the community to know that building material has largely increased in price, during the past year. Those who have delayed erecting contemplated new buildings on account of business conditions now find that material has so advanced in price that their buildings will cost them very much more than they would have a year ago.

About a year ago H. E. Betz, the brick contractor of this city, pointed out in an interview that building material was very low, but that it was certain to advance. That advance has come, gradually it is true, but none the less it is here. Lumber has advanced, both on account of an increased domestic and foreign demand and also because there are not enough ships to carry the lumber to ports of destination.

In addition to this iron and steel for building purposes have made extraordinary strides in price. This is largely the result of the increased demand for structural iron for use abroad. Bridges have been destroyed and buildings ruined and they must be rebuilt. Railroads, too have been destroyed and their reconstruction as well as the construction of new railroads has caused a demand for an enormous amount of rails and other material.

This demand has necessarily increased prices on metal lath, sheet metal work and other sorts of material. The increase in price of this metal lath, which is so essential to a part of fireproof construction in modern buildings, gave rise to the idea that the manufacturers had arbitrarily increased the price. Some have thought that the prices were enhanced without reason; but this has not been the case.

There is little doubt that the advance in steel prices has been caused by the great demand in Europe. It is really not a matter of the price of steel but a matter that concerns delivery. The rates for delivery have steadily increased and at the same time the cost of labor in the east has increased almost as much in proportion.

It is also apparent that the prices will keep high and that the advances of $14.75 per ton on metal lath and $15 per ton on black sheets will not decline until the demands of the war in Europe, which have caused the enormous freight rates and the advanced wages which have added to prices, have fallen again to a normal level.

All avenues of the building and other allied industries have been affected by the war. Its sanguinary arm has been directed into every man's business and its spectre in the guise of some indirect tax sits at every poor man's table and greets him as he pursues his daily avocation. This should be a lesson to those who have the welfare of the country at heart.

There will be wars and rumors of wars until the American continents have made a combination of nations strong enough to bid the European powers keep their hands off this section of the world and also to guarantee that the seas will not be closed to the commerce of this and the allied powers of the American continent and that their citizens may be able to traverse the Seven seas without fear of being sent to the bottom by a hostile torpedo.

Reports concerning the health of the kaiser are not regarded as authentic when they come by way of Wall Street.

MUSIC BY IMES TRIO

The regular Saturday dance at the Masonic hall, beginning tonight at 8 o'clock, under the management of George Mitchell, should prove a decided attraction, as Mr. Mitchell has at last been able to engage the popular "Imes" orchestra of Los Angeles. No more of an introduction is necessary to guarantee an enjoyable evening for those seeking terpsichorean diversion.

VALUABLE FISH SCALES

Among unconsidered trifles may be included the scales of fish. Of value and utility to the owner during its sojourn in the vasty deep, the scales are ignored after capture. But it was not ever thus. In days gone by fish scales possessed a real value, notably those of roach, bleak, dace and whitebait. Older writers tell us how the scales of these fishes were collected and used in the manufacture of necklaces, earrings, and such-like ornaments. The Thames fishermen used to catch the fish and take off the scales.

A pigment was obtained by treating the scales in a certain fashion, whitebait being the most popular fish used for the purpose, says Tit Bits. So great, formerly, was the demand at times that the price of a quart of fishscales varied from one to five guineas. This treatment of fishscales for making small personal adornment is attributed to the French. A Parisian artist one winter, it is said, used 30 hamperfuls of bleak scales in the course of manufacture. Today, however, the industry is practically extinct.

GLENDALE BRITISH RED CROSS

Throughout the past weeks that have elapsed since the last meeting of the Glendale Branch of the British Red Cross society, a great deal of quiet work has been done. The necessity for such work is increasing instead of diminishing. The troops of the British and French are now fighting in the depth of severe winter weather, both on the west and east fronts. The Glendale Branch of the Red Cross society will meet at the home of Mrs. G. E. Walters, 309 N. Louise street, Monday, January 17, at 2 p. m. Interesting details of life in the trenches will be given by various members and the work of sewing, knitting, etc., will be diligently pursued. Friends and members of the society are urged to be present. The number of wounded men to be provided for increases every day.

BY PROF. BURKE

Tuesday evening, January 18, the Tuesday Afternoon club will give the second affair of their series of free entertainments and lectures in the High School auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Prof. T. G. Burk, from the English department of Occidental College, is the principal speaker for the evening, giving a lecture on "The Rhine in Legends and History."

Other numbers on the program will prove attractive and the Tuesday Afternoon club extends a hearty and most cordial invitation to the general public. No admission is charged and no money offering asked.

VEGETABLE BUTTER

A tree grows in Ashanti and around the woods near Kappa resembling in appearance the English oak, and it is said to furnish excellent butter. A curious fact about this vegetable butter is that it keeps in perfect condition all the year round. —Ottawa Citizen.

ON FRIDAY EVENING

A delightfully happy occurrence on the social calendar for this week was the informal affair of last evening in the home of Miss Grace Moore at 1504 West 5th street, when she entertained two Sunday School classes of the West Glendale Methodist church. Fragrant violets predominated in the artistically arranged decorations. Music and games formed the evening's entertainment. Received were the members of the B. B. B. class, including the Misses Helen and Tessie Botts, Eva and Helen Gould, Mary Kendall, Majorie Singleton, William Hobbs, Lucile Hollingsworth, Ruth Stafford and the hostess. The "Biggers" class is made up of Francis Hoopes, Ellis Thomas, Russell Spencer, Guy Pixley and Piere Hartsell, and coming from Los Angeles were Ray Smith, Lee Marshall, Robert Heerman.

Assisting the young hostess were her mother, Mrs. Clara Moore, Mrs. Flora Pixley and Mrs. Odell Kennedy of Los Angeles.

"TWICE AS GOOD AS 1915"

"Twice As Good As 1915" is the slogan of San Diego Exposition. The Exposition authorities and the railroad men, and all other associations in touch with the pulse of the traveling public are unanimous in the prediction that the travel from east to west this year will be greater than in 1915. Canada, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, Russia, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Brazil, the United States government and the Pan-Pacific countries are adding their exhibits which were in San Francisco and all Exposition activities are being focused on the reopening. The informal opening took place on New Year's day. The official opening will take place Feb. 15.

A GOOD COLD DAY DINNER

This is a hearty menu, made up of things that seem to fit best on cold, brisk days.

Dumplings in soup are not often served in private homes because they are rather hard to cook satisfactorily, and must be made just right. The recipe, however, is a good one to follow, and the dumplings are nice in a plain tomato soup or in a rich well seasoned mutton broth which has been cooled and had all the grease removed from the surface. Reheat the broth and when it is boiling, drop in the dumplings; cover and let boil fifteen minutes, then serve.

Soup Dumplings—Chop and free from skin a quarter of a pound of fresh beef suet. Add a cup and a half of flour, a half teaspoon of salt, a teaspoon of sugar, a dash of cayenne pepper, a salt spoon of baking powder, and enough water to form them into small dumplings the size of marbles. Put on a floured plate until ready to drop them into the soup.

Escalloped Codfish—Flake enough cold boiled codfish to make a cup and a half; add a cup of dry bread crumbs, salt, pepper, a tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce, a gill of melted butter, one tablespoon of chutney sirup, a half cup of cream and a stiffly beaten white of an egg. Mix thoroughly and fill buttered ramekins with the mixture. Lay on top of each two raw oysters that have been dipped in egg and crumbs, and dust the top of all with a little grated cheese and dots of butter. Bake in a medium oven until brown.

Fresh Baked Ham—Select a short, thick, fresh ham and have it boned to stuff. Make a highly seasoned stuffing, adding a little chopped celery, onion, tart apple, and a few raisins to it. Bake the ham in a double roasting pan and, just before removing it, sprinkle with a little brown sugar, a little grated lemon peel, and stick it with cloves; then return to the oven and brown it evenly. Serve garnished with sliced fried apple. Make a brown gravy, using the dish gravy as a foundation. Serve with it celery, apple jelly, and Greek eggplant.

Greek Eggplant—Cut the eggplants around in halves and boil in Business of importance will be brought before the meeting of the Executive Board of the Parent-Teacher federation, at its meeting, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Intermediate school. This is the regular monthly meeting. Any suggestions that may be beneficial to the work of the federation will be received with pleasure. TROPICO

A meeting will be held Monday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock, at K. P. hall, by the various committees interested in the card party to be given Wednesday evening, January 26. Mrs. Charles A. Barker, chairman, urges that each member of the several committees be present, as it is desired to complete the plans necessary for the success of the card party.

Mrs. Charles R. Appenfelder of West Seventh street relates thrilling experiences of her recent visit to the Appenfelder ranch near Chatsworth Park. Mrs. Appenfelder, with her father, Mr. Newhall and sister, motored to the ranch and were marooned there by the recent snow storm. They were forced to extricate fuel from three feet of snow in order to protect themselves from the intense cold that followed the storm. Having taken food supplies the Appenfelder party suffered no inconvenience from a scarcity of provisions, but four days of the enforced siege told on this party.

Chapter A. H. P. E. O. Sisterhood was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Barker, South Glendale avenue, Friday evening.

salted water until they are slightly tender. Remove and drain; then hollow out the centers, leaving good sized cups. Chop the centers fine with one tomato; add a tablespoon of bread crumbs, pepper, salt, juice of an onion and a tablespoon of chopped bacon to each half. Fill the cups and put a piece of butter on top of each and a teaspoon of melted currant jelly. Bake in the oven until they are a delicate brown.

Grapefruit and Chestnut Salad—Prepare the meat of two large grapefruit in the usual way. Add a half cup of chopped celery, a cup of chopped, freshly boiled and blanched chestnuts, and the white heart of a head of chicory, cut fine. Fold all in mayonnaise and serve on crisp lettuce leaves, garnished with a little chopped red pepper.

Angel Charlotte—Take a large angel cake and with a sharp knife cut the hole in the center a little larger. Put the cake on a plate, fill the hole partly full of good orange marmalade and spread the top of the cake with it; then heap whipped cream over all, and decorate the top with candied cherries.

In washing dishcloths, instead of using soap or borax, put a quantity of soda in the water and boil them. The grease and soda make a soap that does its own work and clothes smell sweet.—The Citizen, Ottawa.

LITTLE CLAUDE BERGER

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Berger of 825 Lomita avenue are mourning the death of their little son, Claude Paul Berger, who passed from this life early Friday morning, January 14, after a week's illness caused by gangrene of the bowels. The passing of this bright little boy leaves a void in the home where he is mourned by his heartbroken parents and little sisters and brother, Evelyn, Ruth and Harry. Little Claude was only 2 years, 5 months and 9 days old. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Berger in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Berger is dangerously ill as the result of her baby's death.

Funeral services will be held at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors at 10:00 a. m. Monday. Burial in Forest Lawn cemetery.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"The Original Edenic Lie Retold in Boston" will be the theme of a sermon to be delivered by John Henry Troy at the First Baptist church of Glendale Sunday evening. At the morning service the pastor will preach on the seven mystery parables of Matthew thirteen. It will be seen that the present corrupt condition of the visible church on earth was fully anticipated by our Lord. Not till the harvest will the mingled tares and wheat be separated. The forces of the unseen world of evil spirits are being increasingly felt in these days of the end of the current dispensation. Few are they who dare preach the whole truth of divine revelation for potent is the great prince of demons and subtle are his counterfeits and plausible his agents. They, however, who endure unto the end shall be saved out of the present evil age. Baptist Bible School at 9:30 a. m. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m.

CHINA'S WOOD SUPPLY

China draws its principal supplies of soft woods from the United States and Japan. In 1913, the last year for which figures are available, China imported from the United States approximately 79,700,000 feet board measure, valued at $1,500,000. These imports were more than twice the amount of the preceding year and 16,000,000 feet more than in 1910. New York Times.

HOW THE ANCIENTS WROTE

Long, long ago, when Romans and Greeks wished to write, they used wax tablets instead of paper, which they knew nothing about, and their pen was called a stylus. The stylus is a pencil made of iron or other metal; sharp at one end and blunt at the other. The sharp end was used to scratch the surface of the wax and the blunt end was used as an eraser.

If you had lived in olden times in Egypt probably you would have used skins on which to write your letters. At a later time, papyrus, or a certain kind of leaf, was used.
The ink was simply black paint thinned out, and the pen was a brush. By and by some forgotten genius tried a reed, which was used instead.

Our great-grandfathers used quills for pens. Goose quills were mostly used, and quills of crows' feathers were for fine writing.

We have to go back only to 1820
to see the manufacture of the first steel pens. They were made in London and in the form of a tube,
but now they are rolled out of fine steel.

It is a curious fact that the typewriter, which has so largely taken the place of the pen, actually was invented before the steel pen. As early as the year 1717 a typewriter was patented in England, but it was not until 1829 that a practical machine was made. — Virginian-Pilot,

A CIRCUS PARTY

A delightful children's party may be given during the holidays by gathering together the various toy animals,
and arranging them as a circus
party table.

Take two barrel hoops of different sizes, and place in the center of the table, sprinkling the rings with sawdust. In the middle place a horse, as trick pony, with a tiny doll,
as bareback rider, says the Detroit Free Press. Suspend two tissue paper covered hoops from the chandelier, so that it will appear as if she had jumped through one and was about to leap through the other.
Place other animals around the ring,
a trick pig riding an elephant, a bear
in the background holding a pole,
a goat climbing a ladder, a small clown riding a donkey and an alligator escaped from the ring. Jolly clowns stand at the corners of the table and different small animals stand on the bonboniers filled with "cracker jack" at each plate. The place cards are tigers, cut from old picture books.
Serve circus lemonade in glasses. Let the guests give a circus "concert"
after the meal.

SONG OF THE LOAF OF BREAD

See the busy farmer, working in the field,
That the earth may for us of her bounty yield.
See the patient horses, turning row
on row,
Plowing up the furrows, back and forth they go.
See the busy sower, casting forth the seed,
Planting for a harvest 'gainst a time
of need.
See the yellow wheat-heads, shining
in the sun,
Full of heavy kernels, ripened every one.
See the busy miller, grinding wheat
to flour,
See the mill-wheel turning with the water power.
Make the soft white flour in a loaf
of bread,
So that all the hungry with it may be fed.

—Alice C. D. Riley.

reformation now going on. He has not lost a single case which he has carried to the courts. We are all aware of the fact that he is being

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

In the absence of Mr. Francis, who is on the sad mission of inter-

ANNUAL MEETING OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The "annual meeting" at Central Christian Church on New Year's Eve, was, as usual, a delightful affair. Roll call of the entire membership and reports from every department of the work of the church and Sunday School were made, showing gratifying progress in all of them.

A musical and literary program was enjoyed, and the meeting closed with coffee and cake. As the bells and whistles announced the New Year the audience was joining with the pastor in a fervent prayer for peace and righteousness in the earth during the good year, 1916.

The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

cock, I. H. Durfee, O. L. Kilborn, L.
E. Berkey, W. B. Kirk, G. P. Bohannon.

ron, J. H. Daugherty, H. R. Steven-

Sunday School Superintendent—E.
H. Learned.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

At 11:00 o'clock the pastor will speak on "Worship and Service."
The theme was suggested by a strong and timely editorial in a recent issue of the "Christian Work." Is man losing his sense of worship? "What is worship?" "Can service be substituted for worship?" are among the questions that will be considered.

At 3 p. m.—Dr. Willisford will have for the theme of the message,
"The Three Peaces." During the evening the speaker will discuss the remarkable resolution which was introduced at the opening of the present session of Congress by Meyer London, the Socialist Congressman from New York. This resolution presents a plan for the cessation of the present European war. The terms proposed while unique possess no little merit.

In addition to special music by the choir Miss Winifred Jones, one of Glendale's rising violinists, will play
"Meditation" from "Thais," by Mas-senet. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones will accompany her talented daughter on the piano.

The Sunday School assemblies at 9:45 a. m. Classes for all. An especially interesting class for men.
The C. E. meets at 6:30 o'clock. The young people cordially invite all to meet with them.

KINDERGARTEN RECITAL

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan's tiny beginners in music and expression
are to give a recital this, Saturday, afternoon at the Sloan academy.
There is quite a number of these kindergarten pupils and they have made a wonderful advance under careful training. Their parents and friends are looking forward with much pleasurable anticipation. The Intermediate pupils of the school will act as hostesses on this occasion. A full report of the affair will be given Monday.

TOO MUCH FOR BOBBY

Uncle—Well, Bobby, what did you learn at school today? Bobby—I learned that the world is round, and turns on hinges like that globe in the library. Uncle—Well, what do you think of that? Bobby—I think they are asking me to believe a good deal for a small boy.—Daily Times,
